

4/3/22

It feels like spring!

Happy days.

Abby +
Tom x

6/3/22 My 79th birthday walk.

Dornton → Dyrham for soup + coffee
now en route back.

Grey cool day with patches of blue sky.
Lovely walk

Malin + Tony Wood

5/3/22

We nearly saw a bunny!

xox

9/3/22 Nice cool day and nobody about.
Happy walking DUNCAN

6/3/22

Planning which road to have for lunch after a great walk.
Enjoying the dryness of the way
after a muddy start!

David, Duncan, James-Wyn, Hayley-Wyn

& Nick Dundee

11/3/22

Cotswold Way day 5 - almost done! First rain of the entire journey.
Best wishes to all walking these woods.

David,

12/3/22 Last day of a lovely 3 day journey along the Cotswold Way.
Amazing scenery. Awesome people. Some mud(!), but less snow than British Columbia.
Thank you to all the volunteers.

Brian + Tess

Salmon Arm, BC

12th march 22

Jack and Mayer were here

- x o x -

12th March 2022

Doynton - Hinton - Dyrham - Doynton

Great walk, lovely views.

Alex + Bex + Brett & Ss

13/3/22

LAST DAY ON THE COTSWOLD WAY.
looking forward to reaching Bath!

Sru

13/3/22

Lazy stroll from Doynton, Nice pint in the Bull. Rather mild for this time of year.

Jacqui, Chris, Mark,

18/3/22

2nd leg of Cotswold Way.
Beautiful day for walking.

Leise + Emmanuel

18/3/22

Agree, stunning day!
There's a bench just as you get to Dyrham as well as this one, missed both!

Amazing views. Spring has Sprung!

Phil + Jo

18.3.22

Why don't we unite the world and tear down the borders?
Rich & ☺

19th March 2022

Lush walk in the spring sunshine with Rosie and Fifi reliving old times. On our way to tollgate for a lovely cuppa! XXX

19th March 2022
Lovely afternoon walk with Ronnie and Regale, Mookie and Bronson, what a lush walk

19/3/22

Lovely walk with a pub lunch at the Bull in Hinton. Sunny and with friends - bliss! Great wild garlic!

M R L X

19/3/22

Unphnately we are not poets but maybe in another life I would write a poem here instead of this. Enjoy your muddy afternoon

20th March 2022

6.30am Start running 8 miles for ultramarathon training. Beautiful crisp Spring morning Sun rising in the east, moon in the west. Love this route fromtton to marshfield and those woods ~~near~~ the are so peaceful.

Have a great day on the cotswold way

You are amazing, love nature and love you

Jason

Sunday 20th March 2022

Just started the cotswold way - sun shining - Spring is here!

Tom + Gill HEAD

Sunday 20th March -

Finishing up the Cotswold Way Walk was Great!!

Vicky, lillie & Adam

21-3-22

20th March 2022

Epic adventures nearly complete, summed
The wild fungi, stalked through Manors and Marshes, temble wrens, no ice-creams, had to settle on wild garlic. We'll be back
Lisa, Thomas, Patrick, Tessy

21/3/22

First CHIFF CHAFF of the year heard near Sand's Farm.

Also heard Skylarks and Woodpecker nearby.

Garlic is preparing itself
for another glorious Spring show.

If only the rest of the world was just as peaceful.

Gordon the Worker

P.S. First Red Admiral of the year spotted at Pennsylvania.
Great Spotted Woodpeckers in the wood.

A mere beautiful part of the journey from Lands End to John O
Groats

The rambling groundhopper

Adam d V were here!! we have fallen in ice with the Cotswolds!!
23-3-22

Xxx.

23-03-2022

are we at BATH YET!

NEARLY There

23-03-2022

Going to the Bath from Painswick

One-more-day to go.

We are from CA/USA. Like the greenland with up-and-down slopes.

JQ & Mei

Lots of greens, lots of history,
Lots of stories. Great experiences.

24-3-22 at 11:59

done a recce for a 50 mile run from Bath to Painswick.

happy days skip & Sizer

24.3.22. 13:22.

Hello from Swindon! what a lovely spring day. Have fun!

CA

Friidy 25th March 2022

(I think - lost track of time!)

Last few miles to Bath on Cotswold Way - thanks to you all for your company and conversation, as well as the welcoming Inns along the way. Probably won't miss the golf courses though!

Vive
Newcastle.

25/03/2022

Last moments on the Cotswold Way after a lovely week enjoying the sun, the green hills & great views...

Can't wait to go on another English trap!
Mathilde & Flavien (France)

25th March 2022 (Friday)

Last day walking the CW. Unbelievable glorious sunshine - what's even more special - I've just sat here watching a woodpecker at work - amazing end to a fabulous week - MORAG (solo little walker) from the West Midlands xx

25/3/22

SYMON FROM THORNBURY,
SHELLEY FROM TEWKESBURY, STOPPED FOR LUNCH IN THIS BEAUTIFUL SETTING SMEZZING
THE WILD GARLIC LISTENING TO BIRDSONG.

COMPLETED CW NORTH → SOUTH

LAST YEAR, NOW DOING THE REVERSE THIS YEAR.

HOW TIMES HAVE CHANGED :)

25/03/22

Rob Clarke

Walking in today

To peaceful Dymond Wood

I know the bright March sun feels warmer than it should

But be that as it may

I am still so grateful
as I walk my native way.

CW S → N

Bath → Wotton-under-edge

peace be the journey

XXX

26-3-22

Ode from Worcester

About to find the cotswold way starting from home, 92 miles done, 12 to go.

what an amazing place the cotswolds are!

26-3-22

Heading for Bath having walked CW over 3 (was 4) weekends. Enjoying the sunshine & views today. Spotted Scarlet Fly Cup growing back down hill on right.

26/03/22

There once was a group of friends from Kent, and off on a walk ~~for~~ they went, they trudged up this hill, and felt very ill, Very good! an afternoon in the pub they spent.

MARCH 26e 2022

Four friends sitting on this bench pondering the kindness of strangers. What a joy to share coffee and stories with a lovely couple in Pytham-trail angels. We walk onwards to Bath, drenched in sunshine and gratitude.

Sammi, Sanya, Katie P, ZAK

26/03/22

Enjoying the lovely sunny day. This spot seemed ideal for a much break on our Cotswold Way walk. lovely & peaceful.

Beth, Gareth and the dogs,
Jazz & Rufus.

26/3/22

Having a wonderful day, walking the penultimate section of the Cotswold Way - blue sky, sunshine and birds chirping.

4 friends from Hertfordshire

mid

FUN CLUB 2022

27/3/22

AN EARLY MORNING WALK FROM DOWNTON AROUND DURHAM WOODS TO WORK
UP AN APPETITE FOR A BIG MORNIN' DAY ROAST!

TEAM DAWTON

9:40 Mothers Day

27/3/22

Early start from Toll down. A change of air temperature but wonderful choruses from the birds.
The final pull into Bath. What an incredible trail the Cotswold Way is, challenging but generous in its views and historic sites.

May you fellow walkers treasure
every moment as we do.

Jo Gregory and Mike Clark

27/3/22

11.11am Mothers Day 2022

Our first visit to Durham Woods as a threesome - our little girl Florence is now 1 years old! Many more visitors to come from our beautiful home in Durham!

Ter, Amy & Florence x

27/03/22 11:29 Mothers Day

Itto Jo & Mike -

The Cotswold Way has been amazing.

Our last day too. We've enjoyed every minute & this is a lovely place to sit & listen to the birds, take stock.

Gary & Steph ☺

27/03/22 3.06.

This is our penultimate day staying at Pennsylvania tonight before completing to Bath tomorrow. A brilliant walk, challenging & rewarding in equal, the views are chicken soup for the soul,

Elaine & Keith (Birmingham)

27/03/22 3:50pm

We're enjoying the beautiful spring sunshine, with the sound of the chiff-chaff, which has just returned from its winter migration. The comforting cawing of crows, and the sensational scent of wild garlic. Hope you're enjoying it too!

Vanessa and Joe

p.s. we just heard a greater-spotted woodpecker drumming against a tree trunk!

27/03/22 4:25pm.

Enjoying the smell of the wild garlic + the soft sunshine. Last time we left a message in this box it was 9 years ago, very wet, + we'd (maybe foolishly) decided to walk the whole Cotswold Way in the early stages of our relationship. We've recently got married + so are here on a day-trip reminiscence. Jane + Andy

Jane & Andy woz 'ere

30/3/22

Brilliant 9th day of walking. Buzzards mewning, garlic pungent. The weather, though forecast to change, is still being supremely kind to us; cool, sun just peeping through.

Jane and Callum.

31/03/22

6th day of our 7 day walk following the Cotswold Way. Started in wonderful warm sunshine on Saturday from Chipping Campden.

Now a truly winter walk! Beautiful flora + fauna on the way. :)

1st April 2022

We are on our last day of walking (7th Day). What a trip! We were told it was going to be flat :). To the Dutch man walking behind us - we hope you have had a lovely week and weren't affected too much by some cold/snow. Have a safe trip home. Lynn, Oily, Steve, Bruce, Helen

1st April 2022

Second to last day of walking the Cotswolds. Can't wait to be in Bath! Hope everyone is having a brilliant walk, it really is Heaven on a Hatstand! Heather & Lisa

1st April 2022

I love fire!

From Dave the dragon

x

2nd April 2022

Why do pheasants run like toddlers down Something bad?

April 2nd 2022

Good to be back on the cotswold way - after today only one more shirt left (from Bath to wherever Spanish border). Shame no-one wanted to join me today ☹ Mayho! Sawing the wild garlic starting to come up

Kathy

1st day out on the cotswold way.
- bring the big news

Sallie

with Jlia, Helen & Lucy

'Love Until it Hurts' → Amazon

02/04/2022

Keith and Mandy, from Guernsey, walking our first day of The Cotswold's Way, North to South "luggage" on our backs. Tarmarten for supper, bed and Ibuprofen! ☺

3/4/22

Ann + Mike from Lincoln

→ 4th Day of walking Chipping Campden to Bath.
Cold Ashton tonight.
West leg tomorrow.

Challenging walk in the Moth. Beautiful views. +
Cotswold stone properties
☺ ☺

03/04/22

Ewan, Fiona, Rosie the dog ☺

03/04/22

Just stopped for a picnic on the bench! Visiting Dyrham Park after we have done a loop via Doyton!
Josie + Alice ☺

05/04/22

Hugh and Ben, residents of Bath.

We walked here from Doyton with the express purpose of picking the wonderful wild garlic! ~~pesto~~
Pesto on the menu tonight!

3/4/22

Picked some wild garlic to make a yummy pesto! Beautiful day
Lori + Eddie xxx. ☺